For the fifth consecutive year, Glasgow will play host to the Scottish Asian Business Awards and for the fifth year, the event will be supporting Yorkhill Children's Foundation.

Come November 24, the Crowne Plaza Hotel will be packed with the brightest and most successful Scottish Asian business men and women, honouring their successes in an evening of awards and entertainment. And two Glasgow businesses are going all out to raise funds for Yorkhill Children's Foundation before the awards. Read more...
